

CONDITIONS ON WHICH PERMITS ARE GRANTED FOR AUDIO, AUDIOVISUAL & ALL SUCH RECORDINGS AT FLEADH CHEOIL NA hÉIREANN COMPETITIONS AND PROVINCIAL FLEADHANNA CEOIL.

1. A competitor's performance in competition may only be recorded with prior permission from the Fleadh Committee / Comhaltas Ceoltóirí Éireann (CCÉ).
2. Permission to record will be given at the discretion of CCÉ (Comhaltas Ceoltóirí Éireann) and will only be given on receipt of a completed application form containing the written consent of the competitor in question or the competitor's parent or guardian where the competitor is underage (under 18 years of age).
3. A separate application form must be submitted for each competitor or competing group (duets, trios, céilí bands, dancing groups, etc) which the applicant wishes to record.
4. In the case of non-solo competitions the written consent of one member of the group will be sufficient. A parent/guardian must sign the application form in the cases of a competitor under 18 years of age, irrespective of the age category of the competition.
5. The written permission of CCÉ (this being a valid permit for the competition in question and the competitor in question) for a recording must be presented to the call steward /venue staff for the relevant competition before the competition commences.
6. Permission to record a competitor applies to that competitor's performance only. Under no circumstances may any other competitor's performances be recorded.
7. Under no circumstances should the oral adjudication or any dialogue, instruction or communication by the call steward be recorded.
8. The recording of a competitor must not interfere in any way with the smooth running of the competition and must be in compliance with the instruction of venue staff. All recordings of dancing competitions/competitors must be taken from the back of the venue or from the location designated by the call steward/venue staff.
9. These conditions apply to all forms of mobile recording devices.
10. It is understood that all applicants for and holders of a recording permit are personally responsible for complying with CCÉ's Child Protection Policy.
11. It is understood that the permit holder is responsible for the authenticity of all information on the application form. All signatures are understood by the relevant Fleadh Committee/CCÉ to be valid and are thus accepted in good faith.
12. It is understood that the use of recordings facilitated through a CCÉ permit is the sole responsibility of the permit holder.
13. In issuing the above recording permit it is understood that the product/recording is used only for private use.

GENERAL DATA PROTECTION REGULATION: All photographs and all forms of audio/visual and AV recordings are the responsibility of the recorder. It is understood that all recorders have an agreement with the subject(s) of the recording- the data subject(s) - involving explicit consent, an agreement that has taken GDPR into consideration. The recording process and any implied aspects of data control and processing, including the storage, retention, use and sharing of the data are solely the responsibility of the recorder.

The hard-copy permit forms are retained by relevant unit of CCÉ for a maximum period of 3 months after the All-Ireland Fleadh Cheoil of that year.
